

Delancey Street, London, NW1 7NP

£2,600 Per Month

Set within a classic Georgian building in an enviable location only a brief stroll from Regents Park, this spacious, light-filled one double-bedroom apartment with private balcony offers a bright and airy living space and is presented in wonderful condition having been recently refurbished to a very high standard.

High ceilings and full-length sash windows in the living area accentuate the sense of openness, enhanced by the convenience of an open-plan luxury kitchen with washer/ dryer, dishwasher and filter tap for drinking water. The generously sized bedroom has plenty of storage, is peacefully situated at the rear of the building and features patio doors that lead to a private, south-facing balcony with a lovely, unobstructed aspect over neighbouring gardens, perfect for enjoying outdoor relaxation or entertaining. The fitted bathroom has both tub and shower and the taps are fitted with water softeners for a more comfortable experience.

The apartment is conveniently situated close to the Camden High Street with it's world famous, eclectic mix of shopping and entertainment options as well as the tube at Camden and Mornington Crescent offering easy access to the city and West End. The calm, open spaces of Regents Park and Primrose Hill are only a short stroll away.
