

Inkerman Road, Kentish Town, NW5 3BS

£1,335,000

A fabulous three storey Victorian terraced house in a highly desirable residential area, modernised to an exceptional standard and presented in immaculate order throughout.

Spacious and flexibly arranged, the accommodation extends to 1165 square feet (108 square metres).

On the garden level, a good-size reception, with large-format oak parquet, opens on to a comprehensively-equipped and thoughtfully designed contemporary style eat-in kitchen, lit by a wide, full-height glazed door. Adjacent is a handy utility and guest wc.

On the raised ground floor are two good size rooms with high ceilings, period features and stripped floor boards. Folding intercommunicating doors between the two enable one or both, to be used as bedrooms.

On the top floor, a large master bedroom spans the width of the house and features an excellent run of fitted wardrobes. A good-size, well-appointed family bathroom completes the accommodation.

- Fabulous three storey Victorian house
- Good size reception
- Utility/guest wc
- Stripped floors/Parquet
- Wooden sash double glazing
- Two/three bedrooms
- Contemporary eat-in kitchen
- Well-appointed family bathroom
- Period features
- Attractive south-easterly patio garden

