

16A Gordon House Road

Gospel Oak, London, NW5 1LN

£860,000

An exceptionally fine two bedroom garden maisonette occupying the lower two floors of an attractive period terrace, ideally situated within a very short distance of Hampstead Heath.

Offering 935 square feet of very conveniently arranged and well presented accommodation, the property is flooded with natural light, the rear facing due south. In particular the open-plan reception is wonderfully bright and spacious, retaining a great deal of period charm and detail including the original fireplace and decorative plasterwork. The modern kitchen is fitted with a range of integrated appliances and there is a handy guest wc on the upper level.

On the lower ground floor are two very good double bedrooms with excellent storage and a family bathroom/wc.

To the rear is a good size private garden with a delightfully verdant south-facing garden.

Gordon House Road is a very convenient residential location in the heart of Gospel Oak. The open spaces of Hampstead Heath are moments away as is Gospel Oak Underground. The nearest Underground station is at Kentish Town, within easy walking distance.
